THREE ARRESTED FOR MURDER

Neighbors of Slain Farmer Charged With Crime.

TWO HAVE CONFESSED

One Stood Guard With Shotgun While Two Others Entered the House to Rob Hallman, and Shot Him Down at Bedside of Sick Wife—Suspected of Other Crimes.

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 3.—Walter Aston, Paul Fornwalt and Benjamin Aston, all residing in the neighborhood where the crime was committed, were arrested for the murder of aged Alfred Hallman, who on Sunday night was shot down by masked robbers while at the bedside of his sick wife at his home in Pequea township. Fornwalt was caught in this city, where he had come, it is believed, to escape the Astons, as they had threatened to shoot him if he told. Before he had been taken to the police station Walter Aston turned up at that place to inquire if Fornwalt had been arrested and was held there. Benjamin Aston was arrested at his home in Pequea township and brought to jail here.

Fornwalt told all about the murder after his arrest. He said the two Astons had persuaded him to go along to do the job, but he had no idea there was to be any shooting. They were to rob Hallman. Walter Aston entered the house first, and while he (Fornwalt) was in the door Walter began shooting. They then ran away. Ben Aston, he said, had stood guard outside with a shotgun.

Walter Aston, when confronted with the confession of Fornwalt, denied being there, but was very nervous and mixed in his story.

Told of Other Crimes.

Ben Aston at first denied all connection with the crime, but said he knew Walter and Fornwalt had gone from his house to do it. Later he broke down under severe questioning, admitted he had been with the other two and had stood outside while the others went in, and corroborated Fornwalt's story in every important feature. He also told of other crimes that had been committed in the neighborhood, and connected his cousin, Walter, with the murder, as well as another man, whose arrest will likely follow.

The two Astons have bad reputations in the neighborhood and the law abiding citizens feared them. Walter is a young man, while Ben, his cousin, is married and has two half-grown children. Young Fornwalt says his home is at Middletown, Pa.

Fornwalt told the officers that after the shooting Walter Aston had given him the pistol he had used, and he had taken it home and put it on the wall in the barn. It was recovered there by the officers. In his confession Fornwalt told of a number of persons who had met them as they were running away from the place of the crime, and evidence will be worked up to corroborate Fornwalt's story.

Lincoln Day Celebration.

On Friday the 12th of this month the Public Schools and the Citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity will celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Birthday of Abraham Lincoln.

All the school below the High School will hold their exercises in the different school buildings in the forenoon beginning about 10 o'clock. The pupils of the High School will hold their exercises in the Court House on the afternoon of the same day. These exercises will be interesting, entertaining and profitable. The pupils have made great preparation for this occasion.

In the evening, beginning at about 7 30 there will be a public meeting in the Court house to which all are respectfully invited.

Rev. John Hewitt will address the meeting on "Lincoln, an inspiration to the young People." Other addresses will be made by Judge Love, Senator Heinle, Col. Taylor and others.

This should be a Red Letter day in our town, no greater man ever lived than Mr. Lincoln. None so good, so kind and considerate of others, a great patriot and lover of universal freedom.

As there are many people still living who lived in the time of Lincoln and went through the great events which he controlled, this should be the largest and most interesting meeting ever held in Bellefonte.

MRS ALLEN S. GARMAN.

The many friends in Bellefonte of Mr and Mrs. A. S. Garman of Tyrone will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mrs. Garman which sad event transpired in St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia. Thursday at 12 o'clock noon. Mrs. Garman was perated on Monday for gall stones by Dr. Montgomery. It was hoped the operation would afford relief but instead she gradually grew weaker until death ensued at the above stated time.

The deceased whose maiden name was Ellen Cowdrick, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Cowdrick and was born in Bellefonte about 1861. She was married to Allen S. Garman and up until about nine years ago resided in this place. They then removed to Tyrone where Mr. Garman went into the hotel business and where they have made their home ever since.

She is survived by her husband, A. S. Garman, her father M. W. Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls and the following brothers and sisters: William and Edward of Niagara Falls, Paxton of Bellefonte, Mrs. Arvilla Otto and Mrs. P. M. Romeizer of Niagara Falls.

She had one son Ira Garman, who died several years ago and is buried in the Union cemetery at this place. Mrs. Garman was an earnest member of the St John's Catholic church.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte Saturday morning and taken to the home of Mrs. Rebie Cruise on Bishop street. The funeral took place Monday from St. John's Catholic church, and was largely attended by the sorrowing friends and relatives of the deceased. There were quite a number of beautiful floral tributes.

The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. P. McArdle, assisted by O'Hanlon, of this place; Father Bowen, of Johnstown and Father Rosensteel of Pittsburg.

The pall-bearers were as follows: John M. Bullock, Russell Blair, Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., George Beezer, Ed Richards, Joseph Beezer, Thomas Beaver and W. T. Kelly. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Would Bar Marriage of all Consumptives.

That a bills preventing marriage between consumptives and those affected with other transmissible diseases of a constitutional character will be introducted into state Legislature this week, backed by all the leading medical societies of the state, was the statement given out Saturday by an official of the Ancient Order of Leucocytes.

The Order of Leucocytes is a Pittsburg medical society, composed of doctors who are members of the Masonic order. It was also stated that the bill would carry with it a provision that all persons contemplating marriage must have a health certificate from their family physician before they can get a marriage license.

State medical examiners, representatives of each school, will be advocated in opposition to the efforts of the osteopaths, who want a separate board for themselves.

It was stated that influential members of the legislature are back of the proposed marriage bill and that it undoubtedly will be passed.

About the same time fire started in a row of frame dwellings owned by the Pennsylvania Steelton, and eight were destroyed, entailing a loss of from $12,000 to $15,500.

KOMURA TRIES TO REASSURE JAPAN

California is Not to Be Taken Seriously, He Says.

NEVADA GETS THE FEVER

Mikado's Minister of Foreign Affairs Assures the Legislators That the United States and Japan Are on the Most Friendly Terms and That California's Hostile Attitude Is Not Supported by Rest of Nation.

Tokio, Feb. 3.—Count Komura, minister of foreign affairs, addressing the house of representatives, endeavored to reassure Japan in regard to the situation in the United States.

He said that the sincerity of Japan's welcome of the American fleet and American expressions of good will had demonstrated the firmness of the traditional friendship between the two nations which it was imperative to strengthen further through the development of mutual commerce, though not in conflict.

Concerning the Far East and the Pacific, it had been deemed advisable, he said, to exchange political notes announcing mutual policies. These had already greatly conduced to the preservation of peace.

Count Komura further said that the present California legislation hostile to the Japanese was not supported by the American people and need not be taken seriously.

Later, speaking on the subject of emigration from Japan, Count Komura said: "It is advisable that Japan should prevent its subjects from scattering throughout other territories. They should be concentrated in one direction, with a view of extending the area that requires Japanese exploitation. Owing to the changed position, following on the war, it is also necessary to avoid complications that would hamper the country's trade."

With regard to China, Count Komura expressed the hope "that the present authorities in China would be prudent, not only for the sake of China but for the welfare and peace of the Far East."

Japan, he said, was determined to adhere to the principle of the open door and equal opportunity for all.

Count Komura stated that Japan would give notice a year previous of the expiration of commercial treaties now in force and thus recover autonomy, hoping to conclude new treaties separately.

Bfte. High School vs. Crescent Club.

The High School and Crescent Club played a close and exciting game in the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night. From start to finish the game was well played and it was not till the latter part of the second half that the High School lads who were in a better physical condition were able to pull away from their opponents by better team work and good passing. At the end of the first half the score was a tie of 15—15 and there was considerable doubt in the minds of the spectators as to which side would win. The Crescents put up a remarkable game considering their lack of practice while the High School players elicited applause time after time from the audience for their clever dodging and foot work. The large crowd present was due no doubt to the fact that the admission was free. The High School team is in excellent condition for the game here Friday night with the fact Lock Haven team.

GEORGE SWABB.

Ex County Commissioner Dies at His Home in Linden Hall

George Swabb, one of Penn's Valley's best known citizens, died at his home at Linden Hall Sunday at 9 a. m., of heart trouble and dropsy of which he had been an invalid for several months.

The deceased was born in Dauphin County over 82 years ago. Sixty years ago he was married to Miss Mary Bell of Mifflin County, Pa., and soon after moved to Centre county. He was elected a County Commissioner in 1878 when the office paid but $300 per annum. Besides many township offices among them Road Supervisor. He was a farmer all his life and was highly successful in his chosen avocation in life. About five years ago he buried his wife and has since been living a retired life, although he still resided at the old home at the foot of the hill near Linden Hall. He was a member of the Spring Creek Presbyterian church and in politics a life long democrat.

He is survived by the following children: John, of Erie, Pa; Frank of Pine Grove Mills; James and Will of Linden Hall. He also leaves a brother Harry and a sister Mrs Daniel Wian of Centre Hall.

B. H. S. 58—Lu. S—4.

A large crowd saw the Bellefonte High School defeat Lock Haven High School Friday night in a fast and clean game of basket ball by the score of 58—4. Lock Haven, although they were much heavier, were outplayed in every department of the game by the Bellefonte lads. Hecht of Lock Haven gained quite a reputation as a guard by holding Wallace down to 2 baskets during the entire game. In fact Hecht took such a liking to Wallace that it brought to mind the rhyme of Mary and the Lamb for 'Everywhere that Wallace went, Hecht was sure to go." Gamble and Hollobaugh did not allow their men to get a single basket during the whole game and between them scored 22 points. Hartranft and Beezer played a fast and snappy game and kept the scorer busy at the board chalking up the points they made. Olewine and Bair played their usual good game. It speaks well for the guarding ability of the High School in saying that only one field goal was made by Lock Haven. McCandless of the Academy refereed a good game not allowing any rough work thereby pleasing the patrons of the High School who are interested in seeing them play clean basket ball.

The line up is as follows:

Friends Meeting for Workingmen

A meeting for working men, which was held in the Friends meeting house on Sunday was well attended. Herman Newman of Philadelphia, editor of the American Friend, talked on christianity and labor and encouraged those present to form an organization in Bellefonte, along the lines of a movement called "The Adult School," which has met with with great success in England and is being attempted in and about Philadelphia. This movements aims to bring the working men together, in a democratic organization, in an entirely unsectarian spirit, for the purpose of finding ways of their helping each other. Their meetings will be continued every Sunday at 4 o'clock in the Friends meeting house. Subjects relating to christianty and labors will be discussed. All working men are invited to attend.

Fire Followed Warning.

Boyd Webb, tenant of a farm house near Maple Hill, owned by a Mrs. McMonigal, of Williamsport reported about three weeks ago the finding of a note in the barn warning him to leave the house, as it was to be burned. Wednesday night in the absence of Mrs. Webb someone entered and started a fire in a closet. The Webbs reached home, however, in time to save their household goods and the fire was overcome before any serious damage was done.

WILL BE WORLD'S BIGGEST BANK

Standard Oil and Morgan Institutions to Merge.

CAPITAL WILL BE $100,000,000

Deposits Will Be About $500,000,000 When the National City and Commerce Join Forces In New York. Frank A. Vanderlip to Be President of New Concern.

New York, Feb. 3.—It was learned that plans are approaching completion for a consolidation of the National City bank, the Standard Oil institution, and the National Bank of Commerce, known as the Morgan bank, with a combined capital and surplus of $100,000,000 and deposits of about $500,000,000, making it by far the biggest bank in the world.

The consolidation, it is said, will be very easily carried out. The National City bank has nearly $10,000,000 more surplus than the Bank of Commerce, so that all that will be necessary to do will be for the City bank to declare an extra dividend for the amount and then the stock in the new bank would be exchangeable for the stock of the two consolidating banks.

It is said that Frank A. Vanderlip now president of the National City bank, will become president of the merged institution. Valentine P. Snyder is president of the Bank of Commerce, and it is presumed he will have a high position in the new bank.

The National City bank has a capital of $25,000,000 and a surplus of $21,676,000. Its deposits are in excess of $200,000,000.

The Bank of Commerce has a capital of $25,000,000, a surplus of $15,250,000 and deposits of about $200,000,000.

He was admitted to the hospital Tuesday of last week and on Wednesday morning operated on for gall stones with partial success. On Tuesday of this week he was operated on a second time but despite the efforts made to save his life he slowly sank until death ensued as above stated.

He was about 35 years of age. For the past thirteen years he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad as brakeman of the Bellefonte yard shifter. Fire at Valley View.

Thursday morning at 8 o'clock a disastrous fire occurred at the pretty little village of Valley View, nestling along the mountain above Colesville. It proved to be the store building of A. I. Garbrick and the fire caught from a defective flue. The store is located on the first floor of a four story frame building. Above this are flats occupied by two families. The entire building was consumed with all its contents consisting of the stock of merchandise, household furniture, etc. The fire then spread to the stable and it to was destroyed, but most of the contents were saved.

A. I. Garbrick owned the store and building and was doing quite a nice business. The total loss will be close to $3500. We could not learn what insurance if any was carried.

HOUSE READY FOR ACTION

Legislature Will Begin Final Discussion of Bills Next Week.

NEW MEASURES COMING

Gifford Pinchot, of the United States Forestry Service, Will Address the Legislature Upon Forest Conservation—"Snake" Suspected In Bill to Encourage Forest Land Cultivation.

By W. L. CLAYTON.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 30.—The calendar of the house is being shaped so that by Tuesday the lower branch of the legislature will be ready to act finally upon the first of the proposed measures.

With the bill to license osteopathic physicians and to provide a state board of examiners favorably reported out of committee, it will be up on second reading next week. Before the measure is passed finally a public hearing will be held.

Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry service of the national government, will address the legislature next Wednesday night. Chief Pinchot is an enthusiast upon forest conservation, and his theme will be "Devastated Pennsylvania."

Of course, the introduction of new bills is not at an end, and in fact the great majority of bills that will be most seriously considered have yet to appear. It is expected that the return of the representatives on Monday night will mean a new batch of measures.

Would Make Big Changes In Tax Laws

Bills looking to big changes in the tax laws of the state were presented by Representative Dunsmore, Tioga. One provides for a state tax commission to revise tax laws. This is to consist of fifteen members to be named by the governor and to report recommendations. The sum of $30,000 is appropriated for the work. The other bill provides that capital stock tax shall be made ten mills instead of five, and one-half of the revenue is to go to counties for relief of local taxation.

To Encourage Forest Land Cultivation

Introduced as a measure for the encouragement of forest land cultivation, a bill has been referred to the forestry committee for consideration which, if approved, would take from the state thousands of dollars now paid by the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the tannery interests in taxes.

This bill, of which Senator Charles A. Snyder, of Schuylkill, is the sponsor, is designated as a measure "to encourage the planting and maintaining of sprout, forest and timber trees," and the manner of doing so is to relieve all land planted with trees from taxation for thirty-five years.

It is estimated that the tannery interests of the commonwealth have 500,000 acres so planted, with upward of half as much owned by the railroad corporation. In both cases the growing of timber land as a precaution against a timber famine is regarded as a good private investment, and that there should be relief from taxation of such land is finding opposition.

Representative William T. Creasy, of Columbia county, declared that he would have some pointed questions to ask concerning the provisions of the bill.

In its legal language, the bill proposes that "the owners of any lands who shall plant the same with forest or timber trees, in number less than 300 to the acre, shall be exempt from making payment of any and all taxes thereon for a period of thirty-five years." This exemption shall date from the planting of the trees, and upon timber lands where the number of trees now growing is less than 300 the owners shall be permitted to plant the number required to obtain the benefits of the proposed tax exemption.

When the trees shall have attained a diameter not less than four inches two feet from the ground the grazing of cattle and other animals shall be permitted.

Creates New Jobs.

Among the bills introduced was one by Representative Charles E. Mills, of Bradford, which seems to have no other object than the payment of $3000 a year each and expenses to three state inspectors. In the Mills bill it is set forth that their duties shall be to inspect and examine the accounts of hospitals and charitable and other institutions receiving state aid. This is not now done.

Places Carbolic Acid In Poison Class.

Mr. Longfitt, of Allegheny, introduced a bill placing carbolic acid in the list of poisons which can be obtained only upon a physician's prescription or by a respectable inhabitant of full age, and in the latter case the seller must make a full record of the sale in a register and must have the word "poison" marked plainly on the package.

Mr. Longfitt introduced another bill making it illegal to sell revolvers or other deadly weapons unless the purchaser has a permit from the head of the police department in which he lives. The dealer shall register the sale in a book kept for that purpose, and the weapon must have the name of the manufacturer and the number on it. This act applies only to those localities where there are police departments.

GIRL WITHOUT A COUNTRY

Not Wanted by Canada or the United States, She Does Shuttle Act.

Calais, Me., Jan. 29.—Mary O'Neil, otherwise known as "Mary Naples, the girl without a country," is making no end of trouble for the immigration officers. If Mary is found in St. Stephens, on the Canadian side of the line, she is chased across the bridge to Calais, in the United States, and if an American immigration officer gets sight of her he chases her back to Canada.

Mary's mother died and her father married a St. Stephens girl and settled down in the Canadian town. Mary and her stepmother did not get on very well, and Mary was turned out to shift for herself. Then her troubles began.

The Canadian authorities, fearing the girl might become a town charge and claiming she was American born, escorted her to the bridge and told her to migrate. The American authorities told Mary she lived in St. Stephens and must go back.

Mary does not seem to mind it, but rather enjoys the fun of dodging the immigration officers.

LOST DOG COVERS 600 MILES TO REACH HOME

Hound Was Forced to Swim Two Great Rivers.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 29.—Perhaps the most remarkable feat ever performed by a dog has just come to light through a letter received here by a member of the National Fox Hunters' association, from Judge Hoff, of Hot Springs, Ark.

He reports the return of his foxhound Seminole, lost during the field trials at the annual meeting of the association at Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., last November.

The hound reached his home bleeding from all four feet, and almost starved from the long trip. In making the trip the dog was forced to swim the Mississippi and Arkansas rivers, and covered a distance of more than 600 miles.

PURSUED BY STRANGE FATE

Phillipsburg, N. J., Jan. 29. — A strange fatality seems to follow the Lutz family of this place. Wednesday William Lutz, a carpenter, fell from the second story of a new silk mill building and broke his neck. He died where he fell. A couple of years ago his father, Charles Lutz, fell down a railroad embankment and broke his neck. A month or two ago a brother, Oscar Lutz, was cut to pieces by a railroad train, and about three years ago a younger brother got in the way of a runaway horse and was killed.

HURLED FROM FERRYBOAT

Five Men and Two Teams Thrown Into Water by Collision.

New York, Jan. 29.—Five men and two teams and trucks were thrown overboard from the ferryboat Red Bank, of the New Jersey Central railroad, as she smashed into the side of her dock at Liberty street. The men were rescued, but the trucks and the horses were lost. The trucks and horses belonged to the United State Express company and a grocery firm.

Bank Resumes Business.

Brookville, Pa., Jan. 29.—The Union National bank, of Summerville, Pa., near here, which was closed last October because it could not realize on many of its securities, was reopened by the receiver, Frank B. McCormick, on order of the comptroller of the currency. The bank is capitalized at $75,000.

Driscoll Defeats Marto.

New York, Jan. 29.—Jim Driscoll, of Cardiff, Wales, featherweight champion of England, made his second New York appearance at the Fairmont Athletic club and defeated Johnny Marto, of this city, in ten fast rounds. The fight went the limit, but throughout the Englishman had decidedly the better of it.

COLLISION SUITS ARE INSTITUTED

Republic's Owners Demand $2,000,000 Damages.

CLAIMS FOR THE FLORIDA

Italian Steamship Company Submits Demand For $224,000—In Its Action Each Line Contends That the Steamship of the Other Was at Fault.

New York, Jan. 29.—Counsel for the Oceanic Steam Navigation company, owners of the White Star line steamer Republic, filed a libel in the United States district court against the steamer Florida, of the Lloyd-Italiano line, which ran down and sunk the Republic off Nantucket lightship. Damages amounting to $1,500,000 for the loss of the ship, and $500,000 for the loss of cargo and effects of the passengers and crew, were claimed.

It was asserted in the libel that the collision was due to no fault on the part of Captain Sealby, of the Republic, but wholly to the faults of the Florida, which, it was alleged, did not keep a proper course, had no sufficient look out, did not give proper whistles nor pay heed to the whistles of the Republic; that the Florida failed to indicate her changes of helm; that she was proceeding at an immoderate speed, and did not stop or back her engines. The assertion was made that when the officers of the Republic first heard the whistles of the Florida in the fog the Republic's engines were run at full speed astern and that her helm was put aport. Shortly afterward the Florida appeared broad off the Republic's port side, tearing down at high speed and threatening to strike the Republic a right angle blow amidships.

"In the effort to escape the blow," declares the libel, "the master put the engines of the Republic ahead; but the Florida came on at a high rate of speed, apparently swinging under a starboard helm, and crashed head on into the port side of the Republic, penetrating into the engine room."

The court was asked to condemn the Florida and order the payment of $2,000,000 damages to the owners of the Republic.

United States Marshal Henkel, pursuant to these proceedings, has attached the steamship Florida at her pier in South Brooklyn.

Claims Damages For the Florida.

At the same time as the filing of the libel against the Flarida, the Lloyd-Italiano Societa di Navigazione filed a libel against the Republic, accompanied by a petition for a limitation of liability against the Florida, its frpight, passage money, etc. The collision, it declares, was not the result of any fault on the part of the Florida, her master, officers or crew, and was solely caused by the faults and neglect on the part of the Republic and those in charge of her navigation. The damaged value of the Florida does not at present exceed $200,000, the papers say. The amount yet to be paid on her freight is $4000 and the passage money amounts to $20,000. In accordance with these facts, the petition asks that the aggregate amount of damages asked for be limited to $224,000.

Forty First State Convention Pennsylvania Y. M. C. A. to be Held at Pottsville.

Pottsville, the Schuylkill County Capital is to entertain the forty first annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Pennsylvania, beginning Friday, February 19th and continuing over Washington's birthday. The occasion marks the importance of the new building just completed in Pottsville, costing over $100,000, which is regarded as one of the best adapted buildings for the medium sized city in the country.

This meeting will bring together from 600 to 800 of the brainiest young men of the state for consideration of the rapidly growing work of the Y. M. C. A. in Pennsylvania.

During the forty years of the State Committee's supervision, marvelous growth has attended the movement. Pennsylvania today leads the states and provinces of North America in the Y. M. C. A. work. There are 183 associations, 52,000 members, 262 employed secretaries, a total value of property reaching nearly six millions. The associations spend nearly three quarters of a million in annual current expenses. Pennsylvania associations had 17 per cent of all Men's meetings, 15 per cent of attendance at shop meetings, 22 per cent of the attendance at Bible classes and Religious meetings, and 20 per cent of the students in night classes in all the associations of North America. It is a remarkable fact that the night schools of the Y. M. C. A.'s of Pennsylvania have more young men students than are found in all the colleges and universities in the state exclusive of the State University.

Among the many prominent speakers of the coming Convention are, Rev. Frederick W. Farr of Philadelphia, Fred B. Smith of New York, Dr. I. J. Lansing, of Scranton, Mr. Walter M. Wood of Philadelphia, Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Iowa State College, the expert on immigration, and Rev. C. I. Goodell of New York. It is hoped to have Dr. A. T. Pierson of New York for one address. Among the subjects to receive consideration are the Steiner expedition in which six young men are studying the life and language of the people in Europe from which our immigrants come, preparatory to returning to this country to lead in the Y. M. C. A. Work among these immigrant people.

The State Committe includes the names of prominent business and professional men including Judge James A. Beaver, Dr. G E. Reed of Dickinson College, Judge H. A. Fuller of Wilkes-Barre, Hon. Geo. F. Hoff of Greensburg, W. K. Brown, D. C. Wilis and T. J. Gillespie of Pittsburg, W. C. Stover of Philadelphia, James Shand of Lancaster, J. B. Bailey, H. B. McCormick and Vance McCormick of Harrisburg, and twenty others of like character.

New Bridge Over Conemaugh

With a view to further completing the fourtracking of its line from Altoona to Pittsburgh, the Pennsylvania Railroad has asked bids for widening the stone arch bridge over the Conemaugh River, just west of South Fork, on the Pittsburg Division, to hold four tracks instead of three as at present. This is the first piece of new construction work authorized by the Pennsylvania Railroad for more than a year.

A single span stone arch bridge was built over the Conemaugh River when the original Portage Railroad was constructed. This was afterwards used by the Pennsylvania Railroad until June 1889. When the South Fork Dam gave way, causing the Johnson Flood, this bridge with many others, was washed away. When it was rebuilt by the Company it was made a three-track bridge, with two sixty-foot spans.

The addition to the South Fork bridge will increase its width from 38 to 58 feet. The work will necessitate the excavation of 1,5000 cubic yards of earth for the foundations. The construction itself will require 5,500 cubic yards of stone masonry.

For more than a year the engineering department of the Pennsylvania Railroad has been preparing to widen the South Fork bridge, and to add a fourth track between South Fork and Conemaugh a distance of some 37 miles by adding sufficient width to the fills to make possible the laying of the fourth track. With the completion of the bridge, and the four-tracking of the line between South Fork and Conemaugh, the Pennsylvania will have all of its Pittsburg Division between Altoona and Pittsburgh fourtracked, with the exception of 2.10 miles, between Greensburg and Radebaugh. At these points there are two-track tunnels which must be widened before the other two tracks can be added.

LEGISLATURE DOWN TO WORK

Must Get Down to Business to Clear Calendars By April 15.

ANOTHER LOCAL OPTION BILL

Anti-Saloon League's Measure to Be Presented In the House Tomorrow. No Final Action on New School Code Until After Committee Hearings. Osteopath Bill Ready For Adoption In the Senate—May Revise the "Blue Laws" of 1794.

By W. L. CLAYTON.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 1.—The legislature has finally put on its working clothes and settled down to business. The leaders realize that unitss they stick to work it will be impossible to clear the calendars by April 15. Four weeks of the session are already gone and not a single bill has reached the governor. There are a few on the calendars that may be passed and sent to the governor during the present week. Both the senate and the house will reconvene for the consideration of general business at 9 o'clock this evening.

Everybody familiar with the routine of the legislature believes the present session will be a working one and that more work will be accomplished this winter than at any previous session in a corresponding time. Both the senate and the house committees are doing good work, and it is expected that a mass of bills will be reported in both bodies at to-morrow's session. The house appropriations committee is especially energetic and has already reported several bills and has had them read the first time so as to give them a place on the calendar.

Anti-Saloon League's Local Option Bill.

The Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon league expects to have its local option bill ready for presentation in the house tomorrow. This bill will be in charge of Mr. Fair, of Westmoreland, one of the leaders of that body and an effective worker and debator. It is conceded that the bill will be reported from the law and order committee, but it is doubtful if it will ever reach final passage.

No final action will be taken by the senate or the house on the new school code until after the joint hearings by the two committees on education. There is much opposition to the measure in its present shape, but the commission by which it was prepared believes that it is the very best bill that could be drafted, and they will insist on its passage in its original form.

There will be a series of hearings by the senate and house public health and sanitation committees before final action is taken on the seven pure food bills prepared by the dairy and food division of the state department of agriculture.

The Osteopath Bill.

The osteopath bill, giving the practitioners of that school state recognition and a separate examining board, is out of committee in the senate and scheduled for adoption in that body. Its real fight will come when it reaches the house. The bill provides for the establishment of a state board of osteopathic examiners; to define the powers and duties of said state board of examiners; to provide for the examinations and licensing of osteopaths in this state, and to provide penalties for the violation of the act. A bill somewhat similar in character passed both branches of the last legislature, but was vetoed by Governor Stuart on the grounds that it interfered with the duties of the state medical examiners as now constituted. The Connell bill overcomes this difficulty by the creation of a state board of osteopathic examiners, and with this out of the way it looks very much as if the measure would pass in its present shape.

To Amend the "Blue Laws."

The act of 1794, commonly called "the blue laws," is to be again taken up for amendment at this session, so as to meet conditions as they prevail now.

Representative Morris, of Philadelphia, has prepared an act which prohibits the selling of wearing apparel, food, coal, wood or coal oil after 9 a. m. on Sunday, and excepts the sale of ice cream, milk or ice or food prepared in bake houses, lodging houses, restaurants, eating houses and hotels. The penalty for the violation of this act is $25 fine or twenty-five days in jail. The bill has been submitted to the ministerial associations of the state and has met with their entire approval.

A bill to solve the problem of new saloons in the outlying districts of Philadelphia was introduced in the senate by Mr. Tustin, of that city. The bill is a supplement to the high license act and applies only to Philadelphia. It enables those who have purchased property in desirable residential neighborhoods to object to saloons being established in their locality, and provides that no saloon can be established in such a district where a remonstrance has been filed by 60 per cent of the voters of the district.

MIGHTY STRIDES OF SCIENCE.

What amazing mysteries nature holds in the realms of the vast unknown! But the insatiable inquisitiveness of man, is slowly but surely penetrating the hidden depths and heights, and unfolding, year after year, mighty abilities. And how indifferently mankind appears to look upon these astounding developments? Think of that message flashed across the heaving billows of the ocean, by wireless telegraph, to apprise the world of the accident that had befallen the big ship Republic! Already the tidings of such tremendous achievements are received by most men as a matter of course. The novelty of the wireless telegraph has departed almost as quickly as a child tires of Christmas toys.

But chasing upon its very heels, comes the announcement that the wireless telephone is being rapidly perfected so as to be of commercial value. The people of all nations have become accustomed to talk long distances over wires, but still more marvelous the thought, that ere long one's voice will hustle through space on the very wings of the wind to be heard by a listener afar off!

We have been informed by one who has been following the history of the wireless telephone, that by its use it will be possible to prevent accidents like the one which occurred at Summerhill, a few nights ago. It is also stated that the Government, alert to the immense possibilities of this invention, is asking bids for the installation of a service covering distances of 100 miles.

Now comes Wizard Edison with the claim that he has succeeded in realizing the dream upon which he has so long and faithfully labored—a practicable storage battery. That is something the world has needed badly. Eager hands will be outstretched to greet it. When Edison says he has it, we are almost sure of it. Batteries that will move cars 100 miles without recharging means a revolution in existing conditions. Is it possible that we are soon to bid adieu to the millions of miles of unsightly, death dealing poles and wires, with which limping science has so long afflicted us? "'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished."

It is reported that no river and harbor bid will pass this Congress. Tough on Congressmen who harbor anticipations of re-election.

A leading souvenir post card maker says the demand for cards is falling off. Who wants blue houses, green skies, yellow water, and red trees?

The depressed design on the new gold pieces is said to make them easier to stack up. Most of us have found other difficulties about stacking them up.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal suggests that eggs should all have the pure food label. But how protect ourselves then against barnstormer actors?

The sentencing to death of six Tennessee night riders must be quite a blow to neighborhoods where this pastime has superseded the picture puzzle fad.

Teddy's pursuit of the lions of Africa will be only a molly-coddle job, after his intrepid onslaughter on our gamy and ferocious Ananiasas.

Rev. Dr. Cuyler says his good friend Mr. Roosevelt is too combustive. Wall street, however, dislikes him because he is too trustbustive.

That 10,000 word hypothetical question in the Hains case is easy compared with what some of us used to run up against in Colburn's arithmetic.

SAILS TODAY TO WED ENGLISH GIRL

George Westinghouse, Jr., on the Mauretania.

New York, Feb. 3.—Sailing for England today on the Mauretania was George Westinghouse, Jr., whose errand abroad is his marriage to an English girl. The wedding was originally set for last month, but was postponed by Mr. Westinghouse's illness. As seen on the deck of the steamer today, Mr. Westinghouse seemed to be in excellent health. He is to marry Miss Evelyn Violet Brocklebank.

Mr. Westinghouse is the son of the famous and wealthy inventor of the air brake. His bride to be is the daughter of Sir Thomas Brocklebank, a very rich English baronet. She is a twin, her sister being Miss Agnes Sylvia Brocklebank.

The arrangements and the date of the wedding will be decided upon after the arrival in England of Mr. Westinghouse.

The ceremony will take place at Irton Hall, in Holbrook, Cumberland county, the ancestral home of the Brocklebanks.

WARSHIP CAPTAIN ARRESTED

Gibraltar, Feb. 3.—Captain Edward F. Qualtrough, of the battleship Georgia, of the fleet under Rear Admiral Sperry, is under arrest on board his own vessel, and will be tried by court martial on a charge that he was under the influence of intoxicants at a reception given on shore a few days ago.

Captain Qualtrough denies the accusation. His defense will be that he was under a heavy strain during the last run of his vessel on account of rough weather; that on the day of the reception he had been on the bridge since 4 o'clock in the morning; that he did not drink anything during the day, and partook sparingly of the wine served at the dinner which preceded the reception.

MAN THROWN INTO HER BED

Carelessness of Pullman Porter Basis of $10,000 Suit.

New Orleans, Feb. 3.—The alleged carelessness of a negro porter in putting a man in the wrong berth of a sleeping car was the basis of a $10,000 suit brought in the federal court here by Mrs. Amelia M. Dubourg against the Pullman company.

Mrs. Dubourg alleges that she was severely injured by the man's being "thrown" into her berth. The occurrence is said to have taken place on the night of Jan. 22 while she was enroute from Deming, N. M., to New Orleans.

Have $1,000,000 to Defeat Prohibition?

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 3.—An interview purporting to have been given to a Huntington, W. Va., paper by Theodore Alvord, former president and now legislative agent of the Anti-Saloon league, charging that $1,000,000 has been raised to defeat the pending prohibition amendment in the senate, aroused members of the upper house. An investigation will be made.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Feb. 7 h 1909.

True and False Brotherhood.—Acts iv. 32 to v.11.

Golden Text—Lying lips are an abomination unto the Lord, but they that deal truly are his delight. Prov. xii;22.

Verse 32.—Are all who are one with God, always one with each other, that is "of one heart and one soul?"

Should a Christian consider that what he possesses is his own?

Would it be either wise or desirable, that Christians should in this day, have all things in common?

Was it God's plan for them to have all things in common, in that day, or did they allow their love to run away with their judgment?

Verse 32.—What is the secret for witnessing for Christ with "great power?"

Verses 34-35—Speaking from experience and observation, how many honest, industrious, God-fearing men are there that "lack" any necessary thing in this life?

Is a church under obligation, to provide for the necessities of the poor in its jurisdiction?

What ever may have been the case in that day, would it be wisdom, or folly, in this day, for the members of the church to sell their possessions and hand over the money to the church?

Can a person be a Christian, who does not hold his property subject to the orders of God for its disposal?

Will a Christian be as glad to give his money at the command of God, as to receive money from God?

From this account, do you think that they sold literally all their possessions, or only their real estate?

Verse 36 37—If Barnabas has sold one-half of his real estate and brought the proceeds of it, or had sold it all, and brought one half the proceeds, if the community did not need any more, and if he told the facts, would he have been just as well pleasing to God?

Verses 1 2—What prompted Ananias and Sapphira to sell their property?

In what class do you put the sins of pretending to be better than we are?

Why did they pretend that they had given all the proceeds of their property to the apostles?

Why is it that pride is such a terrible sin?

Verses 3 4—Why was the lie of Ananias a lie to the Holy Spirit?

From Peter's remarks, do you conclude that the selling of their property, and the disposition of the proceeds, was wholly a voluntary matter?

Verses 5-6.—Was the death of Ananias, judged by the standards of that day, a penalty for the sin?

What good did the punishment of Ananias and Sapphira produce then and since?

Verses 7-11.—Is there any reason to think that the woman, wanting to appear big in the community was the instigator of this lie, and led her husband into it?

What is the difference between the sin of Ananias and Sapphira and a man who gives a sum to God's cause, saying it is all he can afford, when he can afford more?

Suppose a man gives less than he ought to give to the cause of God does he commit, practically the sin of Ananias and Sapphira? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

What should be our attitude in the distribution of our earnings to God's cause?

TAKES UP DREW BILL

Little Possibility Measure Will Pass California Legislature.

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 3.—The Drew bill, closely modelled on the Oklahoma statehood bill and excluding aliens from property rights in California, will be urged to final passage by its supporters.

The president's letter, which was read with interest by the house members, has not changed Assemblyman Drew in the least, and he declares that he will do his utmost to secure the enactment of his measure despite Roosevelt's counsel to the contrary and Secretary Root's positive objection to any legislation directed, even indirectly, at the Japanese.

There is a general conviction here that the Drew bill will not pass, as Speaker Stanton, the entire Los Angeles delegation and the organization in general is opposed to it. The inclination of Governor Gillett will be to veto the bill unless it is radically modified.

Nevada Takes Anti-Japanese Position.

Carson, Nev., Feb. 3.—A strong resolution, directed to the California legislature, declaring in favor of drastic anti-Japanese legislation, criticising Theodore Roosevelt and designating the Japanese as the "parasites of the world" and a menace to civilization and progress on the Pacific coast, was adopted after it had been so amended that all reference to President Roosevelt had been eliminated. The resolution now goes to the senate.

Teddy, Jr., at the Loom.

EXPLOSION KILLS SEVENTEEN MINERS

Accident in Colliery of Alabama Coal Company.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 3.—Seventeen men are dead as the result of an explosion in the No. 2 Short Creek mines of the Birmingham Coal & Iron company. Five of the dead are white and twelve are negroes.

The explosion is thought to have been caused by a windy shot. The mine itself is practically uninjured.

Ambulances were sent from Ensley to the scene and coffins will be rushed to the ill-fated mine, which was running on short force.

DYNAMITERS FAIL

Unsuccessful Attempt to Wreck Train Blocks Tracks.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 3.—Traffic on the main line of the Lehigh Valley railroad was delayed five hours by an effort to wreck a train on the Harveys lake branch by the use of dynamite. The attempt was unsuccessful. Dynamite was used to displace the rails of the main line at a frog. Had a train come along it would have been thrown from the track and down an embankment.

A workman discovered the shattered rail some time before a train was due, and notified the operator at the nearest station. Repairs were completed after five hours. Detectives are searching for the wreckers.

COAL BED OPENED

Reading Company's New Tunnel Exposes Big Vein.

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 3.—After eighteen months' rush work a drainage tunnel has been so far completed as to draw away from the Brookside colliery of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company millions of gallons of water, so that the lower levels have been cleared and thousands of tons of coal have been reclaimed.

The Buck Mountain vein recently discovered has a thickness of fourteen feet, which will afford the best marketable coal for years to come. This, with adjacent veins of virgin coal, constitute the greatest anthracite "find" of years.

KISSES COST $10 EACH

That Is, When Stolen From Your Landlady, Who Happens to Be Married.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Kisses are worth $10 each, provided they are stolen from one's landlady, who happens to be married. Such was the value placed on osculations by Judge Newcomer at the municipal court, who fined John Fallon, who claimed to be the son of a millionaire real estate dealer of New York, $30 and costs for stealing three kisses from his landlady, Mrs. Edna Caramelli.

PERUNA EDITORIAL NO. I.

Dr. Hartman is now offering Peruna to the public as a regular pharmaceutical product. It is just as ethical as any compound put up for the medical profession. No straining of medical ethics can find any fault with it. THE PRINCIPAL ACTIVE INGREDIENTS are prominently incorporated in the label on the bottle, that the people may know that the claims made for Peruna have a true justification.

The only departure we shall make from medical ethics in the conduct of Peruna affairs in the future, is the fact that we shall continue to advertise and sell our product TO THE PEOPLE.

If we would agree to sell to doctors only, to advertise for doctors only, then the medical fraternity would be obliged to recognize Peruna as being entirely within their approval.

BUT WE SHALL NOT DO THIS.

We shall continue to offer Peruna to the people. We shall continue to convey to the people our claims for Peruna as a household remedy. We shall continue to supply the people with free literature, teaching them how to use our medicine, teaching them how to avoid disease, teaching them many things of benefit to the home. We shall continue to do this, whether the medical profession like it or not.

We are proposing from this time on to take the public into our confidence. Notwithstanding that some imitators and substitutors will be attempting to put up something which they consider just as good as Peruna, we are going to draw aside the veil of secrecy and allow any one who chooses to know exactly OF WHAT PERUNA IS COMPOSED.

This ought to disarm all honest criticism. We expect, however, that criticism will continue. On some pretext or other those who are envious of the success of Peruna will continue to find fault. But we are determined to give such people no just complaint. PERUNA IS A GREAT MEDICINE. It has become a household word in millions of homes. Our faith in the remedy is stronger than ever. Every year we expect to cover new fields in foreign lands until the people of all the world are supplied with this valuable household remedy.

People Who Object to Liquid Medicines Can Now Secure Peruna Tablets.

WE CLAIM PERUNA TO BE A CATARRH REMEDY. Buy a bottle and try it. If it helps you, be honest and acknowledge that it has helped you.

If you want us to we will publish your statement exactly as you furnish it to us. We will add no words, take away no words. If you wish us to we will publish your portrait in connection with it. We will not do this without your written request, without your entire consent.

Peruna has benefited thousands of people afflicted with chronic catarrh, in many phases and locations. At least, that is what the people say to us, through unsolicited testimonials. Many thousand more will reap benefit from Peruna in spite of fabricated slanders to the contrary.

We have taken great pains that every testimonial we use should be absolutely true, in the exact language of the testifier.

We have taken great pains that every photograph published should be the photograph of the person whose name it bears, that every word of every testimonial should be authorized by the hand that signed it.

We are determined to beat our opponents by being fairer than they are, by dealing squarer than they dare to. We are determined to meet falsehood with truth, duplicity with candor, insincerity with sincerity.

We know that the users of Peruna will appreciate our stand. We believe that the dealers in Peruna will applaud our course. We expect even our opponents will be obliged to acknowledge finally that Peruna is not only an honest and useful remedy, but one of the GREATEST HOUSEHOLD MEDICINES ON THE CONTINENT.

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overbusy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

The oath of office was administered to President Gomez and Vice President Zayas by President Barreiro, of the supreme court of Cuba, in the presence of a great throng of Cubans and Americans and other foreigners. Today is a general holiday throughout Cuba, and from all the six states men prominent in the political, commercial and social life of the islands have gathered to attend the inauguration. The principal officers of the American troops still in Cuba, re-enforced by the officers of the American warships in the harbor, made a brave showing in their dress uniforms. The inauguration ceremonies were preceded by a parade of the rural guards and other Cuban troops, in which the American soldiers did not participate, as it was thought that their presence in the procession might recall too strongly the fact that for more than two years the island has been under foreign domination. At the close of the ceremonies President Gomez was warmly congratulated by the foreign envoys, who extended to him the good wishes of their respective governments for the welfare of his country. A conspicuous figure was Mgr. Aversa, representing the Vatican. Many messages of congratulation were received, notably from President Roosevelt and William H. Taft, president elect of the United States. He has many friends among prominent Cubans.

Battleships Salute Gomez.

Word of the taking of the oath of office by President Gomez was sent to the American battleships Maine and Missachusetts, lying in the harbor as representatives of the United States government. Immediately the shores of the harbor began to echo with the reports of a presidential salute fired in honor of the new president by the two vessels. The booming of the guns was greeted with applause by the immense crowds of Cubans, who hailed it as the sealing of the official recognition by the United States of the new government.

The second American occupation of Cuba by the United States began in September, 1906, when the resignation of President Tomas Estrada Palma, since deceased, was followed by a short period of disorder in the island. Under the Platt amendment the United States intervened and established a provisional government in the island, with William H. Taft as provisional governor. Judge Taft was succeeded in October, 1906, by Charles E. Magoon.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 28.—A vein of coal, reported to be fourteen feet thick, was discovered at St. John's, near Hazleton, by a number of workmen who have been proving for anthracite the last few weeks on the mountain a short distance from the town. Practical miners who saw the coal say it is of the best quality.

Castro Monopoly Abolished.

Willemstad, Curacao, Jan. 28.—President Gomez has issued a decree declaring void the monopoly for the manufacture of cigarettes in Venezuela and permitting every one to import tobacco and manufacture it.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

BRAND NEW LOCAL OPTION MEASURE

ANOTHER PENSION BILL

State Bill Will Not Benefit Veterans In Comfortable Circumstances—Those With an Annual Income of $1000 or Receiving Federal Pension Are Excluded—Bill Offers $50,000 Reward For Consumption Cure.

By W. L. CLAYTON.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 29.—A brand new local option bill was introduced by Representative John B. Holland, of Washington county, which, without a doubt, will be fought by the Anti-Saloon league.

The gist of the proposed legislation is that in case local option is defeated at the polls the courts will be compelled to grant a license to every person applying for one.

It provides that each ward in cities and boroughs, and each township in the state shall vote on the question of granting licenses to sell liquor. It provides that the question shall be submitted to the voters on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1909, and at every similar election held every third year afterward.

The third section of the bill is the one that will cause the anti-saloon people to make a strenuous fight. This provides that if a majority of the voters decide against the selling of liquor it will be unlawful for the court of quarter sessions of any county to issue a license, but if local option is defeated at the polls it shall be unlawful for the court to refuse to grant a license in said ward, borough or township on the ground that no license is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travellers.

It adds that the vote at the election shall be taken by the court as conclusive of the question of necessity.

The Anti-Saloon league local option bill did not appear in the house, but will be presented by Mr. Fair, of Westmoreland, Monday night.

Pensions Only For Needy Veterans.

Another soldiers' pension bill was presented in the house, being the third measure of the kind offered at the present legislative session. The bill was presented by Mr. McDowell, of Chester. It provides a sliding scale according to service, and prohibits those having an annual income of $1000 or more from receiving a pension. Those receiving a pension from the federal government are also excluded from the provisions of the proposed act. The bill provides that men who served three years or more in the Civil War shall receive $10 a month; two years, $8; more than one year and less than two years, $6, and more than three months, $5. Emergency men wounded in the line of duty may also be pensioned if they present satisfactory evidence. The bill provides further that widows of veterans shall receive three-fourths of the pensions so long as they remain widows, but no widow shall receive any share unless she shall have married a veteran a year before death.

$50,000 Reward For Consumption Cure.

Measures were presented as follows:

Mr. Martin, Mercer.—Authorizing the state department of health to offer and pay $50,000 reward for a remedy for tuberculosis of the lungs.

Mr. Kirby, Allegheny.—To prohibit deception in paints, putty, turpentine and linseed oil, under penalty of a fine of from $25 to $100, or imprisonment for sixty days.

Mr. Mills, Bradford.—Authorizing justices of the peace and aldermen to issue writs of replevin in cases where value of chattels does not exceed $300, with restrictions as at present.

Mr. Morris, Philadelphia.—That no assignment of wages to be earned to secure a loan of less than $200 shall be valid unless accepted by employer in writing; in case of a married man, the wife must consent.

Mr. Gordon, Luzerne.—Amending the act providing for borough treasurers by specifying how warrants shall be drawn; to authorize records of bonds by officers of townships, boroughs, poor and school districts to be evidence in judicial proceedings; empowering any taxpayer upon providing for costs to appeal from judgments by a magistrate and to become a party to such suit.

Mr. Bentley, Washington.—To require suburban street railways to provide suitable waitingrooms at terminals and to equip cars with toilets, under penalty of $100 fine.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED A WOMAN

Demonstrating Use of Revolver Proved Fatal.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—George Busse, the brother of Mayor Fred A. Busse, of Chicago, accidentally shot and killed Mrs. Lucy Tuckerman, thirty-two years old, of Milton, N. Y. The bullet struck Mrs. Tuckerman in the heart and she died almost instantly.

The shooting occurred in the Walton apartment building. Mrs. Tuckerman was visiting her father, Brigadier General A. C. Gerard, retired, who occupies an apartment in the building. George Busse, in his apartment across the areaway from General Gerard's apartment, was demonstrating the use of a revolver to Miss Bertha Lambke, his housemaid, so that she could employ the weapon in case burglars came. The revolver was accidentally discharged, and the bullet went through two windows and pierced Mrs. Tuckerman's heart.

No arrests were made. General Gerard expressed himself as satisfied that the shooting was accidental.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT LIKELY

Jerome May Sue World on Behalf President's Brother-in-Law.

WON'T AFFECT OTHER SUITS

Henry L. Stimson, U. S. District Attorney, Says Federal Authorities Reserve the Right to Defend the Reputation "of a Gentleman Who Occupied the Position of Head of the War Department," Evidently Meaning Elihu Root.

New York, Feb. 1.—Henry L. Stimson, United States district attorney for the southern district of New York, made public a letter in reply to one written by District Attorney Jerome on the subject of beginning an action for criminal libel in the state courts against the publishers of the New York World because of published charges regarding the Panama canal purchase. Mr. Stimson tells Mr. Jerome to go ahead and assures him

"that such action on your part will in no wise be regarded as an interference, but, on the contrary, we shall regard it as our duty to co-operate with you in all proper and lawful ways."

Mr. Jerome had asked if action in the state courts on behalf of Douglas Robinson, the president's brother-in-law, who is a resident of the city and who was mentioned in the article, would be an unwise interference with the actions begun under federal jurisdiction.

Mr. Stimson answered this question negatively, but he does not state that the federal inquiries or prosecutions will cease in the event Mr. Jerome begins an action.

It is apparent from the wording of the letter that while the federal authorities concede to Mr. Jerome the right to appear as the protector of Douglas Robinson's good name, they reserve to themselves the privilege of acting in defense of the reputation of "a gentleman who occupied the position of head of the war department" in any federal jurisdiction where the case applies.

The reference to the "gentleman who occupied the position of head of the war department," is taken to mean Elihu Root, who was the secretary of war at the time of the Panama canal purchase and is the first intimation that the government may allege that he is the person who has been libelled through the article complained of.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 30.—Fleetwood Lester, travelling salesman for the Southern Supply company, and his wife are in jail here, charged with holding up Hardaway Young, president of the company, at the point of a revolver at the former's home and robbing him of $5600.25.

It is charged that Lester telephoned Young to come to his home to discuss the sale of Lester's stock in the company. When Young entered the Lester home, it is alleged, Lester forced him, at the point of a revolver, to write an order to his cashier directing him to pay Mrs. Lester $5600.25, the alleged amount of Lester's stock. Mrs. Lester took the order to the cashier, who wrote out a check for the amount and identified her at the bank. Mrs. Lester cashed the check and then returned to her home, where Young was held practically a prisoner, and gave the money to her husband.

Two hours after his release Young swore out warrants against Mr. and Mrs. Lester, charging them with robbery, and they were arrested.

Newark, N. It is understood that the governors will act independently of the strikers and the manufacturers.

A Sure Enough High Kicker

Carl Henry, a farmer, residing near Rebersburg, tied his horse in front of a grocery store on Bellefonte avenue, Lock Haven last Saturday, and just as he was in the act of stepping into the sleigh the animal became frightened and ran away.

In the excitement Henry slipped and fell, but held to the reins and was dragged on his knees through the snow for several feet, when the animal came in contact with a tree and was released from the shafts.

The horse ran about a mile before it was caught. It was taken to Weaver's livery where it gave the best exhibition of kicking ever seen in that barn. First it kicked a hole in the side of its stall; kicked Robert Ungard an employe, who tried to subdue it. Then as it was taken through the barn it kicked against a buggy, breaking some spokes and bending an axle. Finally the kicking animal was gotten into the alley, where it kicked at the atmosphere at leisure and may be kicking yet.

—If the people of Bellefonte are going to take any note of the 100th anniversary of the birth of the greatest American, it is time they were doing something. Surely a community which has as many admirers as Bellefonte has of Mr. Lincoln will not let this day go by without a public meeting. Indeed, do whatever can be done fittingly to celebrate the 100th birthday of him who did more for humanity, and the preservation of the Union than any other American.

THE BALD EAGLE'S NEST

Interesting Communication from Former Centre Countian.

In opening a new book, or a book new to you it is always well to read the Preface, as preparatory remarks of the author, I make it a rule to do this and find that the scope of the work becomes clearer, and the "why it was written and the apology, if any, for its existance are set forth. This habit was recently forceably impressed upon me when I took up Dr Egle's "Pennsylvania." After reading the Dr's. preparatory remarks I turned to the article on Centre County, written by my old friend the late Hon. Jno. B. Linn after satisfying myself as to a certain point on which I was unwilling to trust to memory, began leafing over the work to see the illustrations. The very first to arrest my attention and indeed to give me an historical jolt was an engraving showing "The Bald Eagle's nest" on Spring Creek—(taken from below." "Moore," photographer") And this is my apology for taking up an old and undisputed point of local history. "The Bald Eagles Nest. Turning again to the preface of the work in question I find the following: "In the matter of engravings the great difficulty has been in several counties to secure subjects for illustration. In a few cases, after a great deal of trouble and expense we have failed."

This fact is painfully evident in the case of Centre County, but one of the illustrations having any historical importance, and that being a reproduction of an old engraving from an earlier work, showing Bellefonte as it was in 1837 and made from a pen sketch, as photography was not in existence and the art of Daguerre being exclusively confined to portraits commonly called Daguerreotypes. This engraving places the viewer on the hill at the north end of Allegheny street, above Linn, which was not in existence until long years after. Lamb st. is the extreme northern boundary of the town and is shown in the engraving. On the right is seen the Presbyterian church and the Academy, on the left the Court House and the Episcopal church which then stood on the south side of High street above the Court house. This old church was afterwards used by the Lutheran congregation but long since made way for residence purposes. Here the writer went to Sabbath School when a very small boy and had for teacher Mrs. James T. Hale. Here to went "Jim" and George Hale, "Tom" and "Cam" Burnside and George O. Bosl, others there were whose names have slipped my memory. This picture is a fair reproduction of Bellefonte at the time and for years afterwards, but unlike a photo-gravure it gives no details, and except for the general outline, the buildings are not recognizable. One other illustration from a photograph by Jno. W. Moore taken from Half Moon Hill will in time have an historical importance.

This is a digression from the point I wish to make in reference to the first mentioned illustration, "The Bald Eagle's Nest on Spring Creek, taken below." Moore had the artists instinct without the rigid exactness and love for historical facts which shows all through the writings of John Blair Linn. While the text of the author adheres strictly to historical accuracy, Moore's picture places the "Bald Eagle's Nest", on Spring creek, and at least four miles from that celebrated spot. Moore's photograph was taken from the left bank of Spring Creek and shows a portion of that wonderful rock formation between Roopsburg and "Lower Rock" which has always been a source of admiration to the lover of the picturesque. There may have been "a bald eagle's nest" on the ledge of rocks shown in the picture, and it may bear that name, but the picture is misleading, and devoid of any historical character. The casual reader will be deceived by this illustration or at least confused between the location fixed by the author and that of the illustrator. We admire the picture but protest against its in the least, having any other merit than that of photographic accuracy. The inference drawn is that it is a picture of the "Bald Eagle's Nest" of history. It is nothing of the kind. The historical "Bald Eagle's nest," the home of the Indian chief "Bald Eagle" was on the right bank of Bald Eagle creek about a mile below the village of Milesburg and on the Peter Graybill survey.

Andrew Boggs settled on the Joseph Poultney survey opposite Milesburg. "Many applications of 1769 (for surveys) have reference by distance and otherwise to the "Bald Eagle's Nest." The Joseph Poultney on the opposite bank of the creek is described as 'near the fording including his improvement and opposite the "nest." In a deed from Mattack to Jacob Houser Dec. 1788 for a tract of land now embracing part of the hamlet of Houserville, and called "Bastoigne," the location of the land is fixed on Spring creek about "nine miles from the Bald Eagle's nest." This was the actual distance by the old Indian trail which struck a bee line after leaving the gap between Bald Eagle and Nittany Valleys and reached Houser's tract, passing over the hill back of the Reformed church, near the home of Mr. Joseph Tressler in College Township and thence to "the end of the mountain" as Lemont was formerly called.

Mr. Linn of course was in nowise responsible for this alleged view of the "Bald Eagle's nest," and Mr. Moore who photographed this particular spot may have known it by that name and been entirely ignorant of the genuine "nest". In fact there was at one time a tradition that the nest was on an island in the Bald Eagle Creek at Milesburg, but it never had any substantial basis. The description in the Joseph Poultney survey which was one of the first in the valley fixes the location of the "nest." This may not seem a matter of great moment, but let us suppose for instance that some future historian of our county should after discussing the "Bald Eagle's nest" affix Moore's picture by way of illustrating the locality, and omit the words "On Spring Creek, taken from below. Moore photographer?" Then you have not only the description of the famous locality but an actual photographic illustration. Of course the picture by no possibility could deceive one familiar with the location because there is nothing in the scenery of the Bald Eagle Valley which bears the slightest resemblance to the picture. However much the readers of Dr. Egle's "Pennsylvania" outside of Centre county maybe deceived by this bogus "nest," Centre county readers need not be. A matter which it seems is deserving of the attention of the Historical Society, would be a series of photographic views of the old buildings of the county which are disappearing each year through the march of improvement and other causes. Other societies in various parts of the state and in other States are giving this matter their care and are thus preserving for future generations pictures of old buildings which must necessarily disappear. There are several quaint old doorways in Bellefonte, which should be preserved in this way, for while the building may last for ages the uses to which they are being put often necessitates the change of the entrance. One in particular which has always attracted my attention is the entrance to the old Dr. Constance residence on the corner of Allegheny and High street, just above the corner. There were a number of this type among the old buildings. Of a different type is the entrance to the Brockerhoff residence on Bishop street and the Benner residence on High street.

Fire at State College.

Friday night about 11 o'clock, Mrs. Elizabeth Glenn, mother of Dr. Wm. Glenn, of State College, had a narrow escape from an awful death. While in the kitchen she undertook to blow a light out when the flames were driven down into the oil. Mrs. Glenn, who is about 80 years of age, seeing the lamp was about to explode, grabbed it and started for the door leading into the yard. In her efforts to prevent a serious conflagration she tripped and fell, the result being the aged lady was badly burned and everything in the kitchen destroyed. A number of students, who room in the house, extinguished the flames that were rapidly making a human torch of Mrs. Glenn.

Ministers Employ Censor to Watch Plays Produced.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 3.—There are to be no more racy plays presented in the Trenton playhouses if the clergymen of the city can have their way about it. The Ministerial union has employed a censor and served notice that they will keep track of all the theatrical productions in this town in the future. If anything objectionable is discovered in the lines or situations the proprietors of the offending theaters will be promptly prosecuted.

CHURCH AT AUCTION

Atlantic City, Feb. 3.—Sheriff Enoch L. Johnson is to sell a church at auction next Saturday, when the edifice used for years by the St. Paul African Methodist congregation will be disposed of to satisfy a mortgage held against it. Attempts are being made by members to raise the money for the mortgage before the sale takes place.
